Emory Abroad

Greece

ETLA 240
Emory Odyssey in Greece

Study the history, politics, and literature of ancient Greece on campus in the spring semester and then spend spring break in Athens, Mycenae, Corinth, Epidaurus, and Delphi exploring the ancient remains. Athens is one of the oldest and greatest cities of Western Civilization, with a recorded history that extends back 3,400 years. During the Classical period Athens was a centre for the arts, learning, and philosophy. It was the home of Plato's Academy and Aristotle's Lyceum.

Visit the Acropolis at Athens, the Temple of Apollo at Delphi, and the Lions Gate at Mycenae. Athens provides students the opportunity to visit ancient ruins surrounded by a vibrant, modern city. Delphi is one of the most beautiful sites in the world, set on the slopes of Mount Parnassus. From the ruins of the Oracle's Temple, students see the breathtaking Gulf of Corinth. Students walk through the ruined fortress walls of the city in Mycenae, the home of Agamemnon, built over 3000 years ago.

Students can enroll in one of four courses (3 credit hours) and add one credit for the study abroad experience. The study abroad will take place during spring break. See below.

At a Glance:

Next Offering: Spring 2015
Estimated cost: Estimated $3500 - $3700
Included: Airfare, Accommodations, Breakfasts/ Dinner, Entrance Fees, Excursions, Ground Transportation, Travel Insurance, Medical Insurance

Not included: Passport, Lunches, Spending Money

Enroll in one of these courses: (Confirm in 2015)
HIST 232: Myth, Magic, & Ritual
HIST 322: Ancient Rome
POLS 340: History of Political Thought
ETLA 305 : Homer's Iliad and Cities Under Siege

AND add ETLA 240

Meets Core Curriculum requirements:
ETLA 240: Emory Abroad
ETLA 305: GWIC
POLS 340 & HIST 232: MOI Interpreting Texts

Prerequisites: None

Professors:
Dr. Joe Lane jhlane@ehc.edu
Dr. Jack Wells jwells@ehc.edu

Application Deadline:
October 1, 2014

Office of International Education
EMORY & HENRY COLLEGE