

guests are responsible for securing the main entrance upon their guest's entry to or exit from the building during these hours. Lounges are not to be used as sleeping areas.

Each residence hall may set specific reduced lounge hours within the 24-hour schedule upon a two-thirds vote of all students residing in the facility. Lounges and furnishings are to be treated with respect and care. Furnishings are not to be moved.

Evaluations of the 24-hour lounge program will be made periodically by the Student Life staff, the Residence Hall Association (RHA), and the Dean of Students. Misuse or abuse of lounges or the 24-hour privilege can result in disciplinary action against the individual(s) or group(s) responsible.

Theme Houses

The College offers upperclass students an opportunity to live in a variety of intentionally themed communities. Currently the college offers these houses: Eco-House /Simple Living (F/M), Religious Life (M/F), Performing Arts (F), and Creativity House (F), and the International House (Co-Ed). Each year, students are given the opportunity to apply and create a new theme house provided space is available. These houses provide a close-knit community of students who are dedicated to live in an educationally intentional community. In addition, the College offers one Honors Hall that requires students to have a GPA of 3.0 or above. Primary consideration for the Honors Hall goes to students involved with the College's Honors Program. For more information about any of these houses, please contact the Student Life office.

First Year Residences

Most first-year students reside in Wiley Jackson Hall, named for a Roanoke, Va., businessman who provided many scholarships to the College. Built in 1958, the air-conditioned building houses 200 residents. Each student room has a twin bed, a desk, a chair, a chest of drawers and a closet. In Wiley Jackson, the rooms have built-in closets with storage areas. Each wing of the hall in Wiley Jackson has a bathroom with showers. The laundry amenities include washers and dryers located on first floor. Several lounges with televisions are available. Each floor has a kitchen equipped with a stove and a refrigerator. Microwaves are located on all four floors.

In addition to the accommodations of Wiley-Jackson Hall, the College offers single gender housing for male and female residents. These halls include similar living spaces with lounges, kitchens, and laundry facilities available to each resident. Centrally located, these residence halls connect first-year students not only with their peers but with important campus resources. Like the single gender options, the College offers some co-educational spaces in one of our premium halls. All first-year halls are located near the center of campus and are within quick walking distance to all points.

Violation of Policy and/or Contract

Disciplinary action may be taken for any violation of policy and or agreement. Disciplinary action may include but is not limited to disciplinary warning, restitution, fines, disciplinary probation, cancellation of the 24-hour lounge schedule for specific facilities, removal from campus housing, or suspension from the College.

Liability and Insurance

The College is not liable for damages to or loss of property of any kind which may be lost, stolen, destroyed, or damaged in any way while on college premises or in any storage space in its buildings. Each student should insure his/her own personal property through renter's insurance. Many homeowners' policies will include a renter's clause: please check with your insurance company for details.

Houses & Homes

A guide to residence hall living at Emory & Henry

Welcome!

Members of the Student Life staff at Emory & Henry are pleased that you will be living on campus in the next school year. Whatever the size of the residence hall or house in which you will be living, we hope that you will think of it as your home. If at any time during the year you need assistance from the Student Life staff, please let us know.

The Residence Halls

Emory & Henry has a total of 22 residence halls, ranging from historic Colonial style houses with living quarters for four to modern buildings which can house up to 200 students. Upper class students have their choice of residence halls, based on a lottery system which gives preference based on seniority. To encourage a spirit of class unity, many first-year men and women are assigned to Wiley Jackson Hall, our largest co-educational hall. Other first-year students may be housed in a variety of accommodations including both co-educational and single gender options.

The Staff

Emory & Henry believes that education takes place outside the classroom as well as in, and the College places special emphasis on residence hall living. A group of College employees—the Student Life staff—works hard to create an environment in each residence hall that is pleasant, safe, and supportive of the College's academic program.

In charge of each floor or wing in most residence halls is a student staff member known as the Resident Advisor (R.A.). Your R.A. can answer questions, help you with problems, or refer you to other persons at the College who might assist you. Other staff members who can assist you are the Head Resident Advisors and the Area Coordinators, who reside on campus. The offices of the Student Life staff are located in the Martin-Brock Student Center, Wiley Hall and the Van Dyke Center.

Residence Life Policy

Emory & Henry requires that all students live in college-owned residences except for those students who reside with their parents, guardians, or spouses; those 23 years of age or older; part-time students with eight or fewer semester hours; or those students who have special medical or personal considerations which cannot be accommodated on campus (specific documentation will be required).

Due to capacity constraints, there will be times when the College will permit students to move off campus. When this permission is given, the criteria for students selected will be based on seniority status and will be regulated by the Office of Student Life. The authorization to live off campus will be granted for that particular academic year only.

A waiver must be submitted to the Office of Student Life requesting approval for every student living off campus. If this Residence Requirement Waiver is not completed by the established deadline, the student will be billed for room and board.

Part-time students, special students and fifth-year seniors who wish to reside in college-owned residence halls may apply and be granted approval to live in college facilities if space is available.

Every residential student will be required to participate in the College meal plan. Approval for medical and/or financial exception (with appropriate documentation) will be reviewed by the Office of the Dean of Students.

Housing Agreements

Every prospective student who has been admitted to Emory & Henry will receive and be required to complete a form regarding housing preferences. Upon receipt of the $400 admissions deposit and the completed housing application, the student is confirmed for a space in a residence hall (not for a specific room or roommate). Students who complete this step should receive notification of a room assignment and a roommate by mid to late July. A housing agreement must be submitted to the Office of Student Life by the established deadline.

Residential students already enrolled in Emory & Henry complete housing agreements during the spring semester prior to the annual room selection. Each student returns the signed agreement or submits it online and a $150 deposit to reserve space for the coming year. The deposit will be refunded if canceled by June 1.

The information contained in this brochure is considered to be part of the housing agreement. By submitting the agreement, each student confirms that he or she has read this brochure and has become familiar with college rules and regulations pertinent to the residence halls. The agreement is binding for all college policies and regulations in all college facilities.

Room Assignments

Room assignments are made by members of the Student Life staff, with consideration given to information each student provides in the housing form, including requests for particular roommates. Information on the application is especially helpful as the College tries to match up persons who are compatible in terms of study habits, personal habits such as smoking, academic interests, and extracurricular activities. On the form, first-year students may indicate their desire to be on a quiet hall. A quiet hall is not a place where students are unfriendly or abnormally quiet all the time—it is a hall where the residents may vote, as a group, to try to keep down general noise at specified times so that everyone can concentrate on their studies. (For more information on quiet halls, see the Student handbook.)

The College reserves the right to consolidate rooms after the first two weeks into each semester. Room consolidation means that the resident may choose a roommate, declare the room a single (if space allows) and pay the single room rate, or be moved to another room by Student Life. If, during the school year, the student wishes to change rooms or roommates, the student must secure advance approval from the Office of Student Life.

Policies

Emory & Henry has established certain rules which are applicable to students who live in college-owned residences and to any guests who visit them. The rules are designed to insure the pleasant atmosphere and safety of the halls for all residents and to protect the property of the College. Students who sign housing agreements are responsible for knowing the rules that follow as well as any other regulations which may be listed in the agreement, the Student Handbook, the Academic Catalog, guidelines voted by the residence hall, and any official posted notices regarding the operation of the residence halls. The College reserves the right to change regulations, and the changes shall be effective when announced by an appropriate college official.

Wiley-Jackson Hall

Furnishings

Room Furniture. The College provides each student with a twin bed, chest of drawers, desk, chair, window dressing, both wired and wireless internet and cable TV access. Local telephone service is available in the lobbies. Furniture belonging to the college may not be moved or disassembled. No individually-owned mattresses (including futons) may be used because the College must provide mattresses which meet federal flammability codes.

Students may bring additional furniture as long as it does not crowd the room. However, personal lofts are not allowed. Any repairs or modifications to college property should be made only by the College maintenance department; repair requests may be submitted to the Resident Advisor, however a request for any modification must be approved by the Director of Housing.

Students are cautioned against the use of masking tape, adhesive picture holders, thumb tacks, decals, etc., as these may cause damage to the walls, resulting in monetary assessments to the students.

Window screens must not be removed or damaged, and nothing should be placed in, written on, or displayed from the residence hall windows.

Lounge Furniture. Lounge furniture is provided for the use of all students in the residence hall and must not be taken to individual rooms for private use. Unauthorized use of lounge furniture will result in charges assessed to the student(s) involved and can result in Code of Conduct charges.

Telecommunications Outlets. In order to access EHCNET, student computers must meet college guidelines and be virus-free. Please refer to the publication "Students and Computers: A Guide for Computers used on the E&H Campus" for specific user requirements. Each lobby is equipped with a telephone jack providing local telephone service. Students need to make arrangements for long distance calling service. If the student elects to have personal wireless service, there are plenty of services in our area such as Verizon, Sprint, etc. The College provides a boosted signal for students using Verizon free of charge.

All residence hall rooms are wired for cable tv and data, with two cable hookups for ethernet data and one for the cable television. The cables provide access to EHCNET, the College's campus network, and to the internet. The cable system provides a package of broadcast television stations, including some premium channels. More information concerning the telecommunication network may be obtained from the Director of the Kelly Library and Information Technology Services at 276-944-6212.

Stereos. Due to the community living environment, students who bring stereos/or boosting equipment are required to play them at a reasonable level with consideration given to others on the hall or play them with either headsets or earphones. This helps protect the privacy and the academic environment of the College. Violators may be instructed to remove stereo equipment by Student Life staff if it becomes a nuisance.

Refrigerators and other appliances.

Students may use the following electrical appliances in their rooms: refrigerator (size limit of 3.5 cu. ft.), clock, fan, study lamp (no halogen lamps are permitted), radio, shaver, hair dryer, stereo, television, DVD, personal computer and small microwave (.8 cubic feet or smaller). Hot plates, popcorn poppers, toaster ovens, toasters, sandwich makers, George Foreman-type grills, and other heat-producing units are not permitted. Also, air conditioners and ceiling fans are not allowed. Due to the Virginia State Fire Code, extension cords are not allowed in our residential facilities. Power strips with built-in circuit breakers have been approved for use as multiple outlets. Electrical appliances must bear the seal of Fire Underwriters Laboratory Approval or an equivalent nationally recognized testing organization.

Room Keys

Each student living in college residence halls, including college-owned small houses, will be issued a room key and a main entrance key or cardkey to the residence hall. If a student loses a room key, he or she will be charged the cost of a replacement and a new key will be ordered through the Office of Student Life. If an entrance key is lost, in addition to paying to replace the key, the student will be required to pay the cost of a new lock cylinder and keys for all the residents. If a student does not return the issued keys at the time of checkout, he or she will be charged for replacement of the key(s) and for a new lock cylinder if an entrance key is not returned. If an entrance card is lost, the student will be responsible for the cost of the replacement card. Students should regard their residence hall keys as special personal property and should protect them accordingly. These keys may not be duplicated.

Fire Safety

Fire extinguishers are located in accessible positions in all residence halls. Firefighting equipment is for the protection of human lives and property. The use of fire extinguishers in situations other than an emergency is a violation of fire regulations and is a disciplinary offense. Discharged fire extinguishers are to be reported to the appropriate staff person. A penalty charge of $350 will be assessed for unauthorized discharge of fire extinguishers. Tampering with a fire alarm and/or smoke detector is a violation of state law and will subject a student to disciplinary action and/or a fine.

Fire escapes are to be used only in the event of an emergency. Penalty charges may be assessed and disciplinary action will be taken for unauthorized use of fire escapes in non-emergency situations.

Fire drills will be conducted on a periodic basis in each residence hall. Failure to cooperate with staff conducting a fire drill will result in assessment of charges and/or disciplinary action against the student(s) involved.

In case of fire, upon exiting the building, the residence life staff and security should be notified as soon as possible regarding the location of the fire. Emergency dispatch at 911 should be notified immediately.

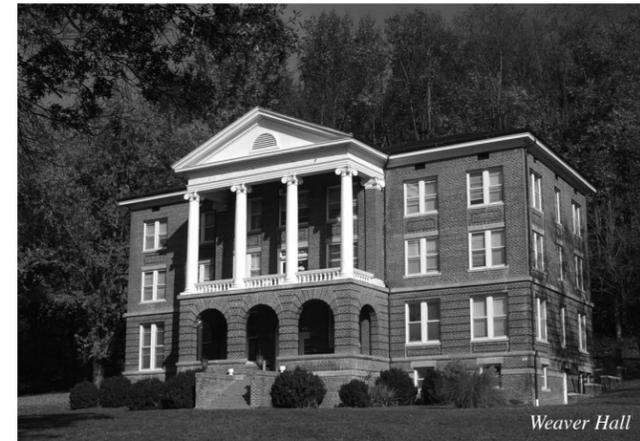

Care of Rooms

All students are expected to maintain their own rooms. Regularly scheduled room inspections are made for reasons of health and safety. The College provides a cleaning staff for the public areas of all residence halls.

Damage. Students are expected to take proper care of college property. When damage occurs, the individual responsible will be billed through the Office of Student Life. In cases where the responsibility of damage in a residence hall cannot be determined, costs will be prorated to all occupants of the hall where the damage occurred. A minimum charge of $5 will be assessed to every occupant for each incident.

Check-in and check-out. To properly monitor the condition of rooms, the College uses a system of check-in and check-out reports. At the time a student prepares to move into a room, he/she will be presented with a room key and a room inspection report form describing the physical condition of the room. If the student agrees with the report, he/she should sign and return it to the Resident Advisor. If the student disagrees with the report or if the report is in error, the report should be adjusted to mutual satisfaction and signed.

When the student leaves the residence hall at the end of the semester or year, or if a room change is made, the Resident Advisor should be notified 24 hours in advance so that a proper check of the room can be made when the student is ready to depart. If the student is not present during the check-out procedure, the room inspection report form prepared by the staff member will be final. Vacated rooms should be cleaned of all debris. Assessments will be made in rooms that require special cleaning. In the event of withdrawal or dismissal, the student must vacate within 24 hours. A monetary assessment may be made for students who fail to follow the proper check-out procedure.

Weaver Hall

General Rules and Regulations

Occupancy of Rooms. The housing agreement submitted by every resident student covers one academic year or any portion of a year for which a student is enrolled. The period of residence begins with the official opening of the residence halls at the time and date designated by the College and ends on the date designated by the College. The student may not occupy or place belongings in any room before the time when the residence hall is officially scheduled to open unless the student is participating in an approved college-sponsored program. Any student who anticipates a problem in leaving the residence hall at the designated closing time should make special arrangements in advance with the Student Life Office. Failure to do so could result in disciplinary action and/or a fine.

Use of Rooms by College. The College reserves the right to use facilities for housing persons attending college-sponsored meetings between terms or during recess periods. The College will notify students whose rooms will be utilized at least one week in advance. The College will hold guests responsible for any damage to the room and its contents during occupancy.

Authorized Room Entry. In the interest of health and safety, it is sometimes necessary for the College to exercise its right to have an authorized staff member enter a residence hall room. Rooms are entered only with "reasonable cause," pursuant to guidelines published in the housing agreement and the Student Handbook. Room entry may also occur due to State Fire Marshall inspections.

Interresidence Hall Visitation. The College visitation policy is designed to combine maximum freedom with responsible stewardship. As such, upperclass halls have a 24-hour visitation policy each day of the week. The first-year halls are open for visitation Sunday through Thursday, 12 p.m. - 11 p.m.; Friday and Saturday, 12 p.m. - 1 a.m. For any of the residence halls, occupants may vote to have fewer hours; the vote must carry by a two-thirds majority.

Fireworks and Weapons. Fireworks, firearms, ammunition, and weapons or materials which endanger student health or safety are strictly prohibited. The possession or use of such on college property is sufficient cause for disciplinary action.

Alcohol and Drugs. The use of alcohol and drugs is prohibited on college property. Absolutely no alcoholic beverage containers (whether empty or full) and/or drug paraphernalia are allowed on campus.

Food. All food kept in a room must be tightly stored in metal or plastic containers to aid in controlling pests.

Pets. For reasons of health, building maintenance, pest control, and general convenience, no pets are permitted in residence halls. Fish are permitted. A fine may be assessed for non-compliance or violations of the pet policy.

Roofs and Ledges. Students are prohibited from going onto the roofs or ledges of campus buildings. Unauthorized use of these areas is cause for disciplinary action.

Open Flame Articles. No candles or incense are permitted in the residence halls. Also, potpourri pots, which are heated by an open flame, may not be used.

Smoking. Smoking is prohibited in the residence halls.

Guests. Students may have overnight guests of the same sex in their residence hall rooms. Each guest must register with a member of the full-time Student Life staff. Failure to do so can result in a fine and loss of guest privileges. A guest may not stay more than two consecutive nights in any residence hall or combination of halls unless he/she has prior approval from the Office of Student Life. Residents are responsible for the actions of their non-student guests.

Hours of Residence Halls

Closing Hours. Between 1 and 7 a.m., any nonresident in the lounge areas of first-year halls must be accompanied by a resident of that particular hall.

Quiet Hours. All residence halls observe quiet hours which extend from 9 p.m. until 7 a.m. each Sunday through Thursday and from 11 p.m. until 7 a.m. each Friday and Saturday. During quiet hours, residents should not make noise which can be heard outside their own rooms.

Self-Regulatory Hours. For security reasons, entrances of all residence halls are locked 24 hours a day. Residents may gain entry to their building with their main entrance key. Visitation hours for all residence halls are set, posted, and regulated by the residents of the building and student life staff.

VISITATION HOURS FOR FIRST YEAR HALLS
Sundays-Thursdays 12 noon-11 p.m.
Fridays & Saturday 12 noon-1 a.m.

Lounge Areas

Most residence halls have a lounge open on a 24-hour-a-day basis. All lounges are under the supervision of the Student Life staff, with the security staff exercising primary supervision from 1 a.m. until 7 a.m. Any person in a lounge who is not a resident of that hall must be accompanied by a resident of that hall. Residents are responsible for the actions of their non-student guests. Security will request guests and/or residents to leave the lounge if policies or security provisions are being violated. Residents who are hosting
