ITINERARY

Ireland is a land shrouded in myth and legend, steeped in tradition, and surrounded by beautiful scenery. But as connected as the island is to its past, it has contributed so much to the modern world through literature, art, and music. This rich nation is characterized by an indomitable pride and spirit that is immediately both obvious and irresistible. A visit to Ireland is a visit to the past, and a new view of the present. Ireland is the one place on earth that heaven has kissed with melody, mirth, and meadow and mist.

DAY 1
Saturday, 14 November 2015
- Relax and enjoy our scheduled flight from Tri Cities Regional to Dublin, Ireland

DAY 2
Sunday, 15 November 2015
- Our 24-hour Tour Director will meet us at the airport and remain with us until our final airport departure.
- Our private coach will be waiting to transfer us to our hotel in Dublin.
- For the next six evenings we will enjoy the convenience of our centrally-located Dublin hotel, where daily breakfast will be included.
- Dublin is a complex small city, whose 19th-century architecture conceals a modern place filled with trendy shops, pubs, restaurants and boutiques. Long perceived to be stuck in the past, Dublin has experienced a rebirth that has brought new life to the historic, modern, charming, and entertaining city. Spend time wandering the Victorian streets, visiting the incredible churches and museums, exploring the vibrancy of the Temple Bar area, and discovering why Dublin is one of the most popular destinations for Europeans and the world.
- In Dublin, the cost of public transport is included for all group sightseeing. Escorted by our Tour Director, we will be able to experience the city in the same manner as the local people.
- Take an Introductory Walking Tour of Southeast Dublin. We will begin outside the Bank of Ireland, one of Dublin's most treasured landmarks, then stroll along Grafton Street, the spine of Dublin's most popular and stylish shopping district. After viewing the Molly Malone statue, we continue to St. Stephen's Green, a beautiful 22 acre park in the heart of Dublin, filled with beautifully landscaped flowerbeds, fountains, a lake, and memorials to important Dubliners. Our tour concludes with a walk around Merrion Square, a marvel of Georgian architecture known for its colorful doors and for the famous literary figures that once lived here, including Yeats and Wilde.
- Tonight we will enjoy a Welcome Dinner in a local restaurant with Emory & Henry students who are currently studying abroad in Dublin.

DAY 3
Monday, 16 November 2015
- During the course of our tour we will gain from the knowledge and insight of two half-day local guides while we are here in Ireland.
- This morning the group will visit Dublin City University (DCU) where E&H students will make presentations about the community organizations where they serve and their overall study abroad experience in Ireland.
DAY 3  Monday, 16 November 2015

- Visit St. Patrick’s Cathedral, the national cathedral of the Church of Ireland. It is said that St. Patrick baptized converts on this site. Consequently, a church has stood here since 450 AD, making it the oldest Christian site in Dublin. The cathedral’s design is primarily Early English in style, and features a 300-foot-long interior and a square medieval tower that houses the largest ringing peal bells of Ireland. St. Patrick’s is closely associated with Jonathan Swift, who was dean from 1713 to 1745, and whose tomb lies in the south aisle.
- Tour the National Museum. Established in 1890, the museum is a reflection of Ireland’s heritage from 2000 B.C. to the present. It houses many of the country’s greatest historical finds, including the Treasury exhibit that features the Ardagh Chalice, Tara Brooch and Cross of Cong, the Wood Quay excavations of the Old Dublin Settlements, and an extensive exhibition of Irish Bronze Age gold ornaments dating from 2200 to 700 B.C.
- Tonight we will enjoy dinner in a local restaurant.

DAY 4  Tuesday, 17 November 2015

- This morning the group will have the opportunity to visit some of the community sites where students are working and learn more about real Dublin life.
- The afternoon is free to explore and shop at your leisure in Dublin.
- Spend some free time to explore and shop at your leisure in Dublin.
- Tonight we will enjoy dinner in a local restaurant.

DAY 5  Wednesday, 18 November 2015

- In Dublin, the cost of public transport is included for all group sightseeing. Escorted by our Tour Director, we will be able to experience the city in the same manner as the local people.
- During the course of our tour we will gain from the knowledge and insight of two half-day local guides while we are here in Ireland.
- A private coach and driver will accompany us today on our trip outside the city.
- Belfast, the capital of Northern Ireland often referred to as the “Big Smoke,” was the only city on the island to experience the full force of the Industrial Revolution. The beautiful city suffered greatly during The Troubles, but has since sustained a period of calmness and substantial growth. Today, Belfast remains a center for industry, as well as the arts, higher education and business and the city center has undergone considerable expansion and regeneration in recent years.
- Visit the Ulster Folk & Transport Museum. This unique outdoor folk museum features a collection of 19th-century buildings, all saved from the bulldozer's path and moved intact from their original sites in various parts of Northern Ireland. Walk among centuries-old farmhouses, mills, and churches; climb to the terraces of houses; and peruse rural schools, a forge, a bank, a print shop and more. The transport museum's collection ranges from donkey carts to De Loreans and includes an exhibit on the Belfast-built Titanic.
- View the Peace Lines, a series of walls that separate Irish nationalist and unionist neighborhoods and help to keep peace and minimize violence between Catholics (who identify as nationalists) and Protestants (who identify as unionists).
- Explore Shankill Road, and learn more about the Protestant Unionists in Belfast.
- This evening dinner will be at the group’s own expense.

DAY 6  Thursday, 19 November 2015

- A private coach and driver will accompany us today on our trip outside the city.
DAY 6 Thursday, 19 November 2015

Visit Glendalough, a former monastery in an idyllically secluded setting. Its name is derived from Irish meaning “The Glen of the Two Lakes.” We will stroll from the upper lake to the lower lake and walk through the remains of the monastery complex, long since converted to a burial place. Although much of the monastic city is in ruins, the standing remains include a nearly perfect round tower, hundreds of timeworn Celtic crosses and a variety of churches. Our visit will include the new Visitor Center, which provides a helpful orientation that comprises exhibits on the archaeology, history, folklore, and wildlife of the area.

Explore Powerscourt Gardens, a 1,000-acre estate with one of the finest gardens in Europe. Designed and laid out by Daniel Robertson between 1745 and 1767, the property is filled with splendid Greek-and Italian-inspired statuary, decorative ironwork, a petrified moss grotto, herbaceous borders, a Japanese garden, a circular pond, and a fountain with statues of winged horses, and the occasional herd of deer.

This evening dinner will be at the group's own expense.

DAY 7 Friday, 20 November 2015

Tonight we will say goodbye to Dublin and the E&H students in a celebratory Farewell Dinner in a local restaurant.
