

wanting consideration for appointed positions should contact the Student Government Office, located on the second floor in Martin-Brock Student Center. Ext. 6927.

College Media

Ampersand. The College literary and art magazine. Organized in 1957 as the “Prism” and renamed “Ampersand” in 1979. Published once a year. Advisor: Prof. Jim Harrison; Editor: Sally Smith.

EHC-TV. The television studio. Programming appears on Comcast Cable, Channel 2, on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 7 p.m., including news and interviews on “Emory & Henry Reports” as well as replays of football and basketball games. Advisor: Dr. Teresa Keller; Student director: Robbie Tullock.

ehcwired.com. The news web site. Organized on September 11, 2001. Updated weekly. Fractional credit is possible. Advisor: Dr. Twange Kasoma; Student manager: Rachel Shenk.

Sphinx. The College yearbook, published since 1907. Issued annually in the spring, the yearbook documents college life during the academic year. A variety of staff positions are open to all students, with interest particularly in page layout, writing, photography, business management, sales, and more. Advisor: TBA; Editor: Betsy Board.

The Whitetopper. The College newspaper; first published in 1914 as The Weekly Bulletin and now one of the oldest student-produced newspapers in the South. Published weekly during the school year. Advisor: Prof. Kathy Porterfield; Editor: Gavin Wright.

WEHC. The college radio station; organized in 1952 as the Radio Club and station WGLG; renamed WLRC in 1966, WASP in 1982, and WEHC in 1992. WEHC is located at 90.7 mhz in the FM band and reaches a 15-mile radius with 500 watts of power. The radio station is licensed by the FCC to Emory & Henry College to serve the public interest of the Emory community and carries community news, information, and sports. WEHC also broadcasts some Radio IQ/ NPR programming in a partnership with WVTF in Roanoke. General Manager: Dr. Teresa Keller; Student Manager: Renss Greene.

Interest Groups

Alpha Phi Omega. Assembles men and women in the fellowship of the Scout’s Oath to develop leadership, promote friendship, and provide service to the community. Advisor: Dr. Kim Reed; President: Milo Cockerham.

Athletic Training Student Organization. The Athletic Training Student Organization is open to students of sophomore status or above who have been accepted into the Athletic Training Education Program. The purpose of the club is to provide athletic training students with the opportunity for interaction with Allied Health Care Professionals and the opportunity to attend academic and professional workshops and meetings. The club strives to enhance the learning experiences for all students in the Athletic Training Education Program. Advisor: Melissa Davis; President: Jeremy Keene.

Blue and Gold Society. Student volunteer organization that serves the College as ambassadors to prospective students and their families and other guests of the College. Activities are coordinated by the Office of Admissions. Advisor: Stephanie Bowman.

Campus Activities Board (CAB). Responsible for planning and executing campus wide activities for students. Movies, concerts, etc. CAB is always looking for new members. If interested in what comes to campus, check The Scoop and/or flyers located on the bulletin board outside the cafeteria. Director: Josh Griffith; President: TBA.

Circle K. Circle K is the college branch of the international service organization Kiwanis Club. A chapter was created at Emory in the spring semester of 2005. The mission of Circle K is to train college leaders by working with local Kiwanis International members to provide charitable help for youth in community and in the world. Advisor: Dr. Jack Roper; President: Stephen Rainey.

College Bowl Club. Provides an opportunity for students to compete in College bowl tournaments held on campus. The winning teams from these campus tournaments may compete in regional and national tournaments held by the College Bowl Company. Membership is open to all students and faculty; however, only students may compete in the tournaments. Advisor: Dr. Ed Davis.

Emory & Henry College Republicans. Promotes interest and involvement in the Republican party and its candidates. Advisor: Dr. Kim Reed; President: TBA.

E&H Greens. Promotes awareness of the human role in healthy ecosystems. Provides service learning opportunities in various projects. Advisor: Dr. Ed Davis; President: Sarah Thompson.

Health Professions Club. Advises students planning careers in the health professions, promotes interest through field trips and speakers, and sponsors visits to medical schools for pre-med students. Advisors: Dr. Mike Duffy and Prof. Greg McConnell; President: TBA.

Men of Color Alliance (MOCA). Dedicated to making the greater Emory & Henry College/ Emory community aware of Civil Rights issues on campus, across the country, and abroad. MOCA does this through their four tenets: Brotherhood, Academic Excellence, Leadership, and Community Involvement. MOCA was established at Emory & Henry College in 2008. Membership is open to all males, regardless of race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, and creed. Advisor: Dr. Aris Winger; President: Mike Brown.

Multi-Cultural Student Association. Serves as a resource to advocate the awareness of different cultures to the campus community. Welcomes students from all cultures and walks of life in order to serve as a resource and support group for students on campus. Sponsors cultural food fairs, films, and concerts depicting the diverse culture of Emory & Henry students. Provides insight, knowledge, as well as comprehension in order to successfully unite all who embody the diverse culture of Emory & Henry College. Open to all students. Advisor: Dr. Twange Kasoma; President: Joy Kazadi.

National Organization for Women Campus Action Network (NOW CAN). Serves as a resource to advocate the equality of women. NOW CAN hopes to educate the student body on the importance of women’s issues such as employment, education, family life, etc. We want to encourage college women to embrace womanhood and promote the values of womanhood. NOW CAN hosts events and programs organized around the issues facing women. Open to all students faculty and staff. Advisor: Dr. Julie Wilson; President: Julie Looney.

ONE. The Emory & Henry ONE Organization is modeled after the global ONE Campaign to end poverty. Students meet bi-weekly to organize awareness-raising, action, and service events for issues such as hunger, women’s rights, AIDS, environment, and other social justice issues. Advisors: Robin Grossman and Amy Ball Braswell; President: TBA.

Peer Education Program. A college and community based network focusing on comprehensive health and safety initiatives. Promotes student campus and community-wide leadership on healthy and safe lifestyle decisions. Plans and promotes programs on campus such as the Mock Cocktail and Halloween Party, Spring Break Awareness, and the Mock Trial. Certified peer educators lead workshops and often assist with peer counseling on campus. Open to all interested students. Advisor: Jill Smeltzer; President: Julie Looney.

Phi Beta Lambda. A national business fraternity open to all students interested in accounting, business management, economics, business law and finance. Advisor: Dr. Denise Stanley; President: Heather Brown.

Pre-Law Society. Provides programming to enrich students’ pre-professional legal skills and studies. These programs include events, such as law forums, that facilitate discussion between students and legal professionals. The Society hosts guest speakers, sponsors visits to law schools, and assists in securing internships. Advisor: Dr. Joe Lane; President: Ashley Griffith.