We are now accepting nominations for the Emily Williams Scholarship Award. This $3,500 award enables an E&H student to study in England or Scotland during the summer of 2014. One award will be given this year.

If you are interested, please choose a faculty member to nominate you and ask this professor to send a nomination letter to my office. The attached application lists the qualifications for this award. Please note that you must be a current junior in a degree program. A junior is defined as a student having between 57 and 86 credit hours.

Attached is an application that must be completed by the student. The application must be received in my office, Wiley Hall #121, by 4:00 PM on Monday, November 25, 2013. Finalists for the award will be interviewed by members of the Academic Council on Wednesday, December 4.

This is a wonderful opportunity and I encourage all eligible students to apply.

David Haney, Ph.D.
Vice-President for Academic Affairs &
Dean of Faculty
Emily Williams Award
Application for Nomination

Purpose of Award: to provide for study during the coming summer at an English or Scottish University and for travel in Great Britain; to promote understanding, goodwill, and peaceful cooperation among all people of the world who speak English.

Amount: $3,500; this should cover most major expenses, including travel; any additional expenses must be paid by the award winner.

Institution: The University and course of study are chosen by the prize winner, and must be stated in the application. All arrangements regarding entrance, registration, passport, and travel are the responsibility of the winner.

Qualifications: The applicant must be a citizen of the United States; a student at Emory & Henry College who has not heretofore studied in the United Kingdom; between the ages of 18 and 23 as of June 1; be a junior in a degree program; hold a 3.0 GPA or higher; possess literary and scholastic ability and have high standards of character. The winner will be expected to be enrolled at Emory & Henry College next year and must agree to report to various constituencies on his/her summer experiences.

Applications must be presented to the Dean of Faculty's office by 4:00 PM, Monday, November 25, 2013.

Name ______________________________________________
College address __________________________________________
Home address __________________________________________
Place of birth __________________________________________
High/Prep school ________________________________________
Course of study at E&H __________________________________
Degree expected __________________________ Date __________
College organizations (if officer, indicate) __________________
Other activities __________________________________________
1st choice of British Institution __________________________
2nd choice of British Institution __________________________

Attach a statement telling why you would like to study in the British Isles this coming summer. (Statement should be typewritten, double-spaced, 300 words or less, and should give some indication of reading and background in relevant subjects.)